

MASS SAVE REBATES IN 2025: How to Save on Your Next HVAC Upgrade

Are you looking to upgrade your home's efficiency and comfort with an air-source heat pump in 2025? Mass Save® rebates for 2025 can help you save up to $10,000 on installation—and Kearney HVAC can help!

WHO'S ELIGIBLE?

- Massachusetts residents
- Customers of Mass Save sponsor utilities (National Grid, Eversource, etc.)
- Homeowners & renters living in a detached 1-4 unit home

AVAILABLE REBATES

WHOLE-HOME REBATE
$3,000 per ton up to $10,000

Requires full heating system replacement

PARTIAL-HOME REBATE
$1,250 per ton up to $10,000

Can be applied towards dual fuel heating

INCOME-ELIGIBLE REBATE
Up to $16,000

Available in full and partial home

OTHER WAYS TO SAVE

0% FINANCING HEAT LOANS UP TO $50,000

FEDERAL TAX CREDITS UP TO $2,000

ADDITIONAL REQUIREMENTS

- Ducted and ductless heat pumps must be ENERGY STAR® Cold Climate certified
- Professional installation with a qualified Mass Save contractor
- Smart thermostat required for partial home rebates (Mass Save smart thermostat rebates also available)
- Sufficient weatherization required for whole home rebates
- Equipment must be installed between January 1, 2025 and December 31, 2025

HOW TO GET STARTED

1. Contact Kearney HVAC
2. Verify eligibility requirements with a home assessment
3. Purchase & install equipment
4. Submit rebate form and required documentation by February 28, 2026

START SAVING TODAY.

978-704-7133

www.kearneyhvac.com